FOLK YOU KNOW

Mrs. William Cronauer, of Bingston, N. Y., a former resident of this city is visiting friends here for a few days.

Miss Cornelia Stark, of Hudson, who has been motoring with friends through the New England States spending some time at Cape Cod and Plymouth, Mass., has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Biddle and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dempsey, of this city, were recent guests at Harrisburg.

Miss Fanny Everett, of Prospect street, who has been seriously ill at her home is making a good recovery.

Miss Theresa Lenahan, of North Franklin street, after spending several weeks at Long Island and Atlantic City, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Rosenkrans and daughter of North River street, have motored to Buffalo, N. Y., where they will spend several days.

The Misses Hance of the Radnor Apartments, South Washington street, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reilly and son, Robert, of New York City. Mr. Reilly is secretary to the Consul General of Poland, in New York City.

Joseph T. Murphy, a member of the Wyoming seminary football staff is visiting the week at Atlantic City, N. J.

Mrs. E. H. Lowell and sister, Mrs. Casselton, of West Union Street, have returned home from Casselton, N. D., where they were for several weeks.

The marriage of Miss Hilda Neu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Neu, of Cedar avenue, Scranton, and John J. McGreevy, of this city, will take place tomorrow morning at St. Mary's Church, Scranton. The attendants will be Miss Anna Neu and Charles McGreevy. A wedding breakfast will follow the ceremony at the family home in Scranton.

Frank Eyerman, a veteran newspaper man of New York City, a former resident of this city, is visiting his brother, Joseph Eyerman, of this city. Mr. Eyerman for many years was connected with several of the newspapers in this city and forty-three years ago went to New York where he has since resided.

Misses Mercedes McDonough, kindergarten teacher at the Home for Friendless Children, is visiting her parents, Frank Burke, of Bennonhurst, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doland, of this city, are guests at Hotel Iroquois, Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Ann Corrigan, of Scarbraugh and son, Donald, of Oxford street, are visiting friends at Syracuse, N. Y.

Miss Ann Corrigan, of this city, have returned from Toronto, Canada, where they have been visiting friends and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Waters, of Monsey, left for Atlantic City Saturday, where they will remain until after Labor Day, as guests of relatives.

Emil Zenke and Al Williams, of the Zenke-Williams Motor Car Company, are motoring through Canada over the week-end and Labor Day.

Miss Ann Gunster, of South Grant street, and family, Paul, Joseph, Jr., and Mary motored to New York City and Mount Vernon, N. Y. to spend the week-end and Labor Day.

Annual Reunion.

The annual reunion of Company I, 213th Infantry will be concluded in this city after a sightseeing trip of the valley today. Among those present at a banquet Saturday night at Hotel Redington were:

Captain Alvin P. Foss, of Massachusetts; John A. Dugan, Wilkes-Barre; Maurice D. Cohan, Joseph F. Harris, Charles R. Hill, Ernest A. Schilke, Allen W. Block, Joseph E. Keating, Michael Ewen, Richard H. Lee, Leon C. Irwin, Emanuel Altman, George Aikne, J. H. Gallagher, James Mullin, all of New Jersey; Harold A. Mason, Joseph Apostalamure, Morris Levine, Morris oldstine, Benjamni C. Meneschy and Frank E. Whitlock, all of New York, and Joseph F. Selatz, Frank C. Wilcox, George H. Horner, of Pennsylvania.

Kleintob-Morris.

A quiet wedding ceremony was performed at the residence of Mrs. George M. Boll, at Truckaville, on Saturday morning, when Miss Beatrice Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Morris, of Kingston, was married to Dr. Ross Kleintob, of Wyoming. The happy couple left immediately on a motor trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. Upon their return they will reside at 270 Wyoming avenue, Wyoming.

Mrs. Kleintob, a very popular young woman of the West Side a graduate of the Wilkes-Barre High school, Wyoming Seminary and of City Hospital Nurses training school.

Evans-Symons

Miss Margaret Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Evans, of Tunkhannock avenue, West Pittston, and Albert R. Symons, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Symons, of East Broadway, Larksville, were married on Saturday at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Joseph L. Welsley, pastor of Forty Fort Presbyterian Church. The attendants were Miss Catherine Haugh, of Allentown, and Louis Cottle, of Larksville. The bride presented a charming appearance in a gown of white canton crepe and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bridegroom was attired in a gown of Madonna canton crepe and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride is popularly known and is a graduate of Keystone Academy. She was formerly employed in the Forty Fort schools. A number of pre-nuptial events were tendered her by friends.

The bridegroom is well known locally and at present is employed as a salesman for Hazard Manufacturing Company.

Following the ceremony the young couple left on an extended trip to Virginia, which will include a visit to Luray Caverns and Natural Bridge.

Martin-Nealon.

Miss Catherine R. Nealon, of Scranton, and William Frederick Martin, of Washington, D. C., were married Friday in the Holy Name Church, Washington, D. C., by the Rev. Thomas Kervick. Miss Florence Hurm, of Wilkes-Barre, and Ernest J. Martin, a brother of the bridegroom, were the attendants. Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Buckley, of 1122 Slaith street, N. E. Washington.

Powell—Nygren

Walter C. Powell and Bertha J. Nygren, both of this city, were united in marriage Friday night at 8 o'clock in the parsonage of Trinity Lutheran Church, by the pastor, Rev. C. B. Holmer. They were attended by the bride's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nygren. Blue traveling suits were worn by the bride and bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell left Saturday morning for a wedding trip to Philadelphia. They will reside at the latter's father, Nels Nygren, of 576 North Franklin street.

Ward

St. Mary's Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Monday, when Nora Ward, daughter of A. P. Ward, of this city and Truckaville, was united in marriage to James A. McHale, of Madison street, this city. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. J. Curran, rector of the church and they were attended by Miss Nellie Ward, a sister of the bride, and Emmett McHale, a brother of the bridegroom. A reception and breakfast followed the ceremony at the family home at Truckaville and only the immediate families of the young couple attended.

The bride was attired in a gown of blue canton crepe with picture hat and carried a bouquet of bride roses showered with lilies-of-the-valley. During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. McHale left on an extended wedding trip and will reside at 47 Hutson street when they return.

Surprise Party

Miss Ruth Price was pleasantly surprised at her home, 7 Emily Lane Saturday afternoon, when a number of her friends assembled and spent a pleasant evening in honor of her fifth birthday. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. Ruth was the recipient of many pretty gifts. Luncheon was served to the following: Margaret Price, Katherine Long, Alice Knorr, Rebecca Price, Marjorie Milne, Ruth Price, Genivieve Long, Charles Milne, Edward Price, Norman Rogers, Thomas Price, James Long, Robert Price, Daniel Price, Mrs. James Long, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. William Milne and Mr. and Mrs. Price.