Born, to Dr and Mrs. A. L. Hausfolmer, of 32 North Washington street, at City Hospital, yesterday, a son. Mrs. Hausfolmer was before marriage Miss Betty Becker, daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles Becker, of Mallory Place.

Mrs. Frank Bressler, of Baltimore, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reutelhuber, of Caley avenue, has returned home.

The marriage of Miss Irene Michaels and William Ledsetting, of this city will take place Wednesday evening, June 23, at 8 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran Church.

Mrs. George McLean and family, of South Franklin street, will leave on Monday for Portland, Maine, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Edwin Connell and son Edwin Harvey Connell, of Scranton, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sickler, of South River street.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary Daniels, daughter of Mrs. John Daniels, and William Hooper, both of Taylor. The ceremony was performed Wednesday morning, June 14, by Rev. Ivor Thomas, of this city.

Judge W. S. McLean and family, of Kingston have gone to Dallas for the summer

A Canton and family, of South Franklin street, are occupying their summer home at Dallas.

James Morley and niece, Miss Helen Morley, who have been touring the western states, returned home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gunster, of 302 South Washington street arrived home Saturday, after spending a week visiting the former's sister, Mrs. S. Ashbridge, and nephew, H. B. Ashbridge, of 363 Exchange street, Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cohen and daughter, Miss Thelma, of South Washington street, are occupying their summer home at Harvey's Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pain, and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Sagenkahn, of South Franklin street, are spending the summer at Harvey's Lake.

Mrs. J. W. Waltman will entertain at a six teas at Hotel Sterling Monday.

Mrs. Robert W. Johnson who has been spending this week as the guest of her brother, Louis Hitchler at Oxford, Pa, will return tomorrow.

Miss Romayne Schooley will entertain a number of friends at her home on James street, Dorranceton, this evening.

It is announced that Louis Baker Phillips, now of New York First Church of Christ Scientist, will give an organ recital in Scranton in Asbury M. E. Church Tuesday evening, June 30. There will be many in Wilkes-Barre who will be interested in this event as Mr. Phillips is very well known here and his musical talent is well understood and appreciated.

Attorney A. L. Williams is back from a short trip into New England, where he attended the wedding of Louise, the oldest daughter of the late Henry W. Dunning, to a Mr. Lenahan, a bank official in Boston. The Dunnings have since their leaving here been living in Boston. Mr. Williams speaks of Mr. Lenahan as a man of high standing in the business and social community of Boston.

Emil Lefkof, of North Main street, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Mary Porwit and her son Paul, are in Mt. Alto attending the commencement exercises at the Mt. Alto College of Agriculture, of which Mr. Lefkof is a graduate.

Miss Myrtle Kaiser, Hostess

Miss Myrtle Kaiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kaiser, was hostess at a very pretty party at the Kaiser summer home at Pinehurst, yesterday, and her guests were members of the faculty of the Harry W. Palmer School. A delicious dinner was served and the day most enjoyably spent. Her guests were: The Misses Mary Moser, Margaret Wilson, Irene Gibbons, Ruth Brown, Marguerite Dailey, Theresa Rose, Sophia Perry, Esther Dodson, Marguerite Smith, Elizabeth Alexander, Charlesa Hart, Ida Kerr, Helen Wolfe, Barbara Richards, Mary Aston and Mr. and Mrs. William Houck. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Ellen Ryan, a former member of the Palmer School Faculty.

Yocke-Williams.

This morning at 8:45 o'clock a very pretty wedding took place in St. John's Lutheran Church when Miss Mildred Mae Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Williams, of 13 Elder street, and J. Harold Yocke, of Philadelphia, were united in marriage. Only the immediate members of the families witnessed the ceremony and Rev. L. Domer Ulrich, pastor of the church, officiated. They were unattended and immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Williams residence. The bride, who is a very popular young woman, wore a traveling suit of blue trilcotine, hat of the same color. She is a graduate of the local High School class of 1915 and of City Hospital Training School class 1918, and has successfully followed her chosen profession. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and an expert accountant. After an extended trip they will reside on a farm at Orcland, Pa.

Nygren-Decker

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at 8 o'clock, when Miss Mabel Decker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Decker, was united in marriage to Joel Leonard Nygren. The ceremony was performed at the family residence of the bride by Rev. Dr. L. K. Williman, pastor of the First Methodist Church. They were attended by Mrs. R. Hughes, of Nanticoke, a cousin of the bride, and W. Forrester Decker, brother of the bride. The flower girls were: Elizabeth McCracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McCracken, and Alto Elizabeth Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lewis, of Nanticoke. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The residence was beautifully decorated with palms and roses. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served by Miss. Hagins.

The bride was charming in a gown of white embroidered crepe, picture hat and carried a bouquet of sunburst roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her attendant wore a dress of French blue organdie, picture hat and carried Ophelia roses.

After an extended trip to New York, Philadelphia and Atlantic city they will reside at 28 Academy street.

The bride is a popular young woman of this city and a graduate of the local high school and a member of the Serve-Your-City Club. The groom is a graduate of the local high school and of Bradley Tyrotechnic Institute and is a member of the faculty of the local high school.

Van Horn-Richards

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Isabel Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Richards, of Shestown, and David Van Horn, a prominent business man of Nanticoke, Thursday morning in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church at Alden by the rector, Rev. W. R. Holloway. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Elmira, N. Y., where they will spend their honeymoon and upon their return will reside with the bride's parents.

Urban-Jones

Miss Vera C. Jones, of Kingston, and Anthony J. Urban, of Pittsburgh, formerly of this city, were united in marriage at Scranton, April 17, 1922.

Mrs. Urban is a graduate nurse of the Nesbitt Hospital and for some time has been doing private duty for some time. Mr. Urban is employed by the Postoffice Department at the division headquarters of the Railway Mail Service, Pittsburgh.

They will be at home to their friends at 1008 South Braddock avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Pre-Nuptial Party

Miss Alma Conner entertained a number of friends at her home on William street on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Williams, who will soon become a bride. Miss Williams was the recipient of a number of beautiful and useful gifts. The tables were artistically decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink and white. Those present were Mrs. James Lloyd, Mrs. Miriam Pattison, Mrs. Harry Gregory, Misses Ruth Williams, Mildred Conner, Helen Walton, Sarah Maxwell, Mildred Wolfe, Pauline Wolfe, Helen Stehl and Alma Conner.

Outing At Harvey's Lake

Twenty-one members of Serve-Your-City Club will hold an outing at Blue Triangle Lodge of the Y. W. C. A. at Harvey's Lake today and tomorrow. The party will leave Public Square this afternoon at 3 o'clock and will return tomorrow night.

The following have signed for the trip: Misses Ethel Jonathan, Edith Albert, Emily Albert, Florence Webb, Anna Peterson, Irma Hollenbeck, Jean Ithaler, Carol Hungerford, Marion Hungerford, Clara Miller, Gertrude Latcher, Helen Bradford, Beatrice Coleman, Esther Krise, Jane Adams, Esther Bandenbush, Mildred Eppeman, Mildred Ruth, Elizabeth Moon, Susan Mihl, Marion D'Hommedieu.

Entertains Graduating Class

Members of the academic course of the graduating class of St. Mary's High School were entertained at a dance held in Oneonta pavilion, Harvey's Lake, given in their honor by Miss Mary Mclaughlin.

More than 100 members of the graduating class and their friends attended. Music was furnished by the Serenaders' orchestra.

Miss A. Mclaughlin, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. W. J. Lennig of Philadelphia, who is visiting the Mclaughlins at their summer home at Harvey's Lake, were chaperones.