Jean's comments:

The letter is about Grandpa Swanson's sister in Sweden. I remember when they got that word.

Aunt Carolina was Charles Swanson's sister. She never married – was a seamstress for the royal family and lived in a cottage on one of the royal estates.

I believe Dad corresponded with her after his Dad died. I guess this Arne Olson translated into Swedish for her. (Is she in Ed's records?)

Aunt Josephine was named for her. (Josephine Carolina)

Mrs. Swanson!

Earlier it has been a pleasure for me writing you and doing Aunt Carolina the favor but today it is not. I am very sorry to tell that Aunt Carolina is dead. It happened Sunday afternoon without pain after a short period of illness. Apparently her heart could not more.

She died in the community where she was born and has always lived and as far as I know she has never been further from home than 50 miles. She always lived the quiet way. She believed in God and had only very few friends, but no enemys.

She will be buried at one o'clock Friday afternoon 10/31 at Strovelstorpes Kyrka.

Should there be any questions I shall be glad to help you if possible.

Sincerely yours,

Arne Olson.

P.S. May I kindly ask you to notify others concerning in U. S. A.

Thanks now!
