Women's Clubs Social and Civic Activities

About Town

Personal News Of Residents Of All North Shore Communities

Flushing

Mrs. Leonard W. Bonney of Kissena boulevard, won fourth place in the non-sporting class of the Somerset Kennel Club's dog show Saturday afternoon for her entry, a Dalmatian, Tally-Ho Ian. In the sporting dog class, Torohill Trader, the black cocker spaniel of Leonard J. Buck of Great Neck, won second. This animal also won first in the cocker spaniel class.

* * *

Mrs. Malcolm S. Bleecker of the Benjamin Franklin apartments, 140-10 Franklin avenue, with her infant daughter, Barbara, has returned from Flushing Hospital and is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Stevens of Bayside. Mrs. Bleecker was Miss Dorothy Stevens. Mr. Bleecker is a son of William H. Bleecker of 150-35 35th avenue.

* * *

Miss Norma Uttal of Great Neck, has been named in group One of the sophomore honor lists at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. White of Station road, Great Neck, are among the September visitors at Westport Inn, Westport.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. E. Stanley Floor, formerly of Flushing, who have been living at Oceanside for the past 2 years, have returned to town and are residing at 35-09 147th street.

* * *

Olive Hyde Foster, formerly of Flushing, now of Jackson Heights, writer on garden subjects, lectured before the Martha's Vineyard Garden Club, Martha's Vineyard, Mass. at the September meeting of the club.

* * *

Miss Virginia Brillinger of Roosevelt avenue, has returned to Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., for her senior year.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. John Schell, who were married September 12, have returned from their wedding trip spent at Lake George and Lake Placid, and are at home at the Sanford Towers, Union street, Flushing. Mrs. Schell was Miss Erma Elizabeth Wilson. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Britian Wilson of 41-34 171st street.

* * *

Mrs. A. M. Ryon, and daughter, Miss Emily Ryon, of 38-03 Bowne street, have returned from several weeks' stay at Booth Bay Harbor, Me.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Valley and son, Thomas of 149-60 45th avenue, have returned from a motor trip to Boston. George E. Valley Jr., remained to start his senior year at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Carl Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith of 43-17 Parsons boulevard, is another local boy at the college.

* * *

Kazimierz Zaremba of 136-22 Maple avenue, who underwent a serious operation at the New York Hospital, Cornell Medical Center, last week, is reported slightly improved. Mrs. Zaremba is a teacher in the Bayside annex of Flushing High School.

* * *

Mrs. Isaac W. Smith of 34-11 148th street, was a judge at the show of the American Dahlia Society last week at the Hotel Pennsylvania, Manhattan. Mr. and Mrs. Smith won first prize for their yard and garden in the recent contest conducted by a Manhattan daily.

* * *

Miss Mary Elizabeth Latham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Latham, of 142-38 Franklin avenue, is entering the freshman class of Cornell University this month. Miss Marcia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Brown, Jr., of 143-35 38th avenue, is also a student at Cornell.

* * *

Charles Van Nostrand of 34th avenue has resumed his studies at Cornell University where he is a sophomore.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alexander, Jr., of Flushing announce the birth of a son, William Carl Alexander, 3rd, Sunday.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. FitzGerald of Brooklyn were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Francis Kelly of Sanford avenue at dinner Saturday evening.

* * *

Miss Kay Jordan of 34-11 146th street is spending some time in Chicago, attending the Century of Progress Exposition.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. David Wills of 168th street had as their guests Col. A. Morena and Mrs. Morena of Mexico City.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. McQuillan of 164th street entertained Larry Doyle, former second baseman of the Giants on Sunday. Mr. McQuillan, who formerly pitched for the Giants, is considering a position as coach for the Hamilton College baseball team.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Thackaberry have as their week-end guests, Miss Lillian Connor of Brooklyn and James Pitman of Bayshore.

* * *

Miss Florence Ficken is spending 2 weeks in Albany.

* * *

Miss Doris Bader, 143-35 37th avenue, Flushing, will be a bridesmaid at the marriage of her cousin, Miss Mabel Martin, of 435 Hawthorn street, Brooklyn, to George Corcoran, of Flatbush, October 20 at the Church of St. Francis of Assisi.

Bayside

Mail Carrier Louis Schneider has resumed his duties at the local post office after spending his vacation motoring up-state and in Canada with his family.

* * *

Miss Mary Bell of Bell boulevard won a blue ribbon with her exhibit of lilies at the annual show of the American Dahlia Society in Manhattan last week.

* * *

Luigi L. Robinette, Jr., of Bayside Park has resumed his studies at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

* * *

Jack Klocke of 217th street has returned from a tour of Europe and the Near East, during which he visited London, Paris and Jerusalem among other places of interest.

* * *

Miss Gertrude Harnden of 216th street has returned from Chicago, where she spent several weeks with friends.

* * *

Frank Dalton of 43-14 217th street has returned from Miami, Fla., where he went with his son, Frank, Jr., who has entered Miami University.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Baldwin of 43-24 217th street spent the week-end at their summer home in Kent, Conn.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Leavitt of 43rd avenue spent the week-end at their cottage in Brown's Mills, N. J.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Messmore Kendall and children, Miss Florence, Miss Susan, and Messmore Kendall, Jr., formerly of Bayside, are passing the month of September at the Bentley camp, Saranac.

* * *

Henry Kritzler of 36-27 216th street, has gone to Bard College, formerly St. Stephens, where he is taking a course in science. He is a graduate of the School of Fine Arts, Pratt Institute and of Flushing High School. Robert Kritzler has returned to Columbia College. He is entering his junior year.

* * *

Miss Florence G. Rice of Rochester returned home Sunday after spending her vacation at the home of her brother, George B. Rice, 35-27 217th street, Bayside.

* * *

J. Burt Miller of Livonia, N. Y. who has been staying with his sister, Mrs. Jennie D. Rice of 35-27 217th street, Bayside, has left for a trip through upstate New York.

* * *

Mrs. Jennie D. Rice and George B. Rice Jr., of 217th street, Bayside, visited Asbury Park over the week-end.

Douglaston

Miss Phoebe Hirshon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hughett Hirshon of Circle road, has left for Chambersburgh, Pa., where she will enter the freshman class of Penn Hall.

* * *

Mrs. J. Kenneth Anderson of Prospect avenue has returned from a several weeks visit to Chicago, where she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Will H. Clark and visited the Century of Progress Exposition. Mr. Anderson's sister, Miss Joan Anderson of Manhattan, was his guest during the absence of Mrs. Anderson.

* * *

Brooks and Theodore Beck, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Beck of Hollywood avenue, have gone to Lawrenceville, N. J., to continue their studies at the Lawrenceville Academy.

* * *

John S. Braun of Manhattan spent Sunday as the guest of Mrs. Margaret B. McLellan of Bay avenue.

* * *

Dicky and Caroline Herz, James Lande, Althea, Peter and David Knickerbocker, Landy Smith and Peter Mezay on Monday started attendance at the Manhasset Day School in Port Washington.

* * *

Miss Patricia and Miss Mildred Hall of Manhattan were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Falkingham of Arleigh road.

* * *

Mrs. Charles Flemming, who has been spending the past week at the home of her brother, Russell Thorpe of Manor road, has returned to her home in Penn's Grove, N. J.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Johnson who have been occupying the Hans-Paul Herz house on Kenmore road, have moved to an apartment in Jackson Heights.

* * *

Mrs. Arthur Miller of Arleigh road, who has been seriously ill at Harbor Hospital, Manhattan, for the past several weeks, has returned to her home where she is slowly recuperating.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. Reginald Peer of Bangor, Me., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Cochrane, Jr., of Arleigh road.

* * *

Mrs. George Dodge and 2 daughters, Miss Helen and Miss Barbara of Cherry street have completed a 3 month's motor trip which covered a tour through Colorado and the Rocky Mountains, a stay of 2 months at the Teague Ranch in Las Vegas, New Mexico, and the Hilton ranch at Rociada, New Mexico. On the return trip they came by the Gulf of Mexico, Florida, Greensboro, N. C., where they were the guests of Mr. Dodge's sister, Mrs. George Geoghegan, stopping at Chatham, Va., where Miss Barbara resumed her studies at the Chatham School.

* * *

Mrs. Eugene Brady of West drive and her sister, Mrs. Thomas H. McTeague of Great Neck, have returned from a 10-day motor trip to Lake Placid, where they stayed at the Alta Vista Hotel.

* * *

Charles P. Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Clarke of Shore road, has gone to Exeter, N. H., to continue his studies in Exeter Academy.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick K. Glynn of Manor road were hosts Sunday to Miss Irma Savage of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Froud and Miss Ruth Hepp of Brooklyn.

Flushing Heights

Among those who attended the dance given Saturday evening at Nassau Hall, 166th street and Nassau boulevard, Flushing Heights, by the Flushing Eagles A. C. were Miss Marie Pastore and Miss Ann Sorcek of 168th street, Flushing Heights, and Miss Wanda Zaleski and Miss Frances Weronik of Ozone Park.

Whitestone

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Guckel of 147-23 19th avenue, are spending a week, touring Virginia by motor.

* * *

Allan Dowling, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dowling, of 15-05 149th street, has entered the freshman class at Seton Hall College, Orange, N. J.

* * *

Mrs. Mary Egan and grandchild, Dolores, of 34-25 97th street, Corona, were guests over the week-end at the home of Mrs. Katherine Kleber of 157-14 15th avenue.

* * *

Mrs. Edward Dichter of 154-17 15th drive, is spending 2 weeks at the Belmont Hotel, Rockaway.

Jackson Heights

Neil Meloy of Jackson Heights and George Moffett of Glen Head are 2 North Shore boys attending the Northwood School for Boys, at Lake Placid.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fuller of Jackson Heights, have gone to Crawford House, Crawford Notch, N. H., in the White Mountains. Mr. and Mrs. William Bauer of Great Neck are at the same resort.

Beechhurst

David Kidney, Jr., son of Chief and Mrs. David Kidney, of 13-03 160th street, having completed his freshman year at Fordham University, has entered the sophomore class at Georgetown University, Washington.

Queensboro Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Crilley of 59th avenue has as their dinner guests Sunday, Mrs. Lillian Van Eps and her daughter Miss Inez Van Eps of Richmond Hill.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flood of Lawrence avenue entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawless at dinner and bridge Sunday evening.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Magnell of 57th avenue had as their guests for golf and dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McGee of Bronxville.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stahl of 58th avenue entertained at dinner and bridge Saturday. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rode of Woodside and Mr and Mrs. William Dieter of Astoria.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Early of 57th avenue were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McGinnis of Elmhurst on Saturday.

Garden Club Of Little Neck To Stage Fall Show

Third Competitive Floral Display Set For Wednesday In Church Building

The second annual fall show, and the third show since its organization, of the Little Neck Garden Club, Mrs. Francis Burgess, president, will take place on Wednesday, September 26 in the Little Neck Community Church building. Outside Clubs invited to exhibit are the Douglaston Garden Club and the Stewart Manor Garden Club. The entries will be divided into 37 classes including 4 in flower arrangement 5 in dahlias, 3 in roses, and a number in fall annuals and perennials.

Mrs. Thomas Porter is general chairman of the show; Mrs. Charles E. Wiesman chairman of judges and publicity; Mrs. Charles Stikeman chairman of the committee to help the judges; Mrs. Worcester Trumble, chairman of the staging committee; and Mrs. Nathaniel V. Garretson chairman of entries.

All entries must be in between 9 and 11 a. m. Wednesday. The judges will be Mr. Sperling of Stump and Walters, Mrs. D. Sherman Taber, of Flushing, and Mrs. Orr of Stewart Manor.

The exhibition will be open to the public, free of charge, from 3 to 5:30 p. m. and from 8 to 9:30 p. m.

Coming Events

Whitestone Party

The Whitestone Republican Club, Inc., will hold a card and bunco party Friday evening, September 28, in Presbyterian Hall, 149th street and 15th road. Mrs. Mary Hopp, chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Fiedler, Mrs. Alice Anderson and Mrs. Elsie Weiss.

Democratic Card Party

The Whitestone Women's Democratic Club will hold the first card party in the fall and winter series Wednesday, September 26, at Odd Fellow's Hall, Whitestone. Mrs. Nettie Ahearn is chairman, and will be assisted by several members of the club. Games start at 2:30 p. m.

St. Andrew's Mothers' Club

The St. Andrew's Mothers' Club will meet this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Samuel Wiley, 34-16 148th street, Flushing, to offer sympathy for the death of Mrs. Wiley's mother, Mrs. Barbara Brown.

School 31 Party

The Mothers' Club of School 31, Bayside, will hold the first card party of its season in the school tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Walter L. Wilson heads the committee of arrangements.

Bayside Induction

Mrs. William Kunle, re-elected president, and the other officers of the Bayside American Legion Auxiliary will be installed by officers of the county organization at Post headquarters tonight. Members of Bayside Post have been invited to attend. A social period will follow the ceremonies.

Malba Club Dance

The Woman's Club of Malba will hold its first dance of the fall and winter season Saturday night, September 29, in the clubhouse, 30 Center drive.

Whitestone Card Party

One in a series of afternoon card and bunco parties by the Whitestone Women's Democratic Club, Inc., will be held Wednesday, at 2 p. m., in Odd Fellow's Hall, 14th avenue, Whitestone. Mrs. Nettie Ahearn, chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Kathryn Moger, president of the club; Miss Nona Hoolahan, Mrs. Edith Trautwein, Mrs. Mabel King, Mrs. Cecelia Dickie, Mrs. Loretta Newman and Mrs. Vera Miller.

Epworth Church Tea

Afternoon waffles and tea will be served by the Ladies' Aid of Epworth Church, Whitestone, Wednesday, from one until 4 o'clock, in the basement of the church. Mrs. George E. Baldwin, the president, will be assisted by Mrs. Bertram Coffin, Mrs. Seth Harpell, Mrs. Frank Fell and Mrs. B. P. Gunyan.

Leonard Unit To Meet

The Auxiliary of the William A. Leonard Post, American Legion will meet the evening of October 8 in the clubhouse, Franklin avenue, Flushing. Mrs. C. Manley DeBevoise, president, will conduct the meeting.

County Legionnaires

The Queens County Auxiliary, American Legion will hold its monthly meeting the evening of October 1 in the Jamaica headquarters.

Paumonok Women's Party

The Women's Division of the Paumonok Democratic Club of Flushing Hillcrest will hold a bunco and card party at the clubrooms Friday evening, September 28. Mrs. Helen Campion will be chairman of the affair. Mrs. Emma Crodell and Mrs. Mae Doyle were recently admitted to membership. The club will have a regular meeting this evening in the clubrooms.

School 154 Club

The Mothers' Club of School 154, Flushing Hillcrest will hold their regular meeting September 25 in the school.

Corona Circle Meeting

The Companions of Foresters, Pride of Corona Circle, will meet Tuesday evening in Knights of Columbus Hall, 97th avenue, Corona.

St. Luke's Holy Name

St. Luke's Holy Name Society of St. Luke's Parish, Whitestone will hold its annual card party Thursday, October 4 at the parish hall. George W. Gentner is chairman of arrangements assisted by a large committee. A meeting of the card committee will be held tomorrow night in the parish hall.

Women's Democratic Club

The Women's Democratic Club of Jackson Heights will hold its next meeting Tuesday, October 2, at the Jackson Heights clubhouse, 34th avenue and 79th street. Mrs. Helene Williams, president will preside.

Corona Republican Club

The Corona Republican Club will hold its meeting Thursday night at the clubrooms, 40-22 National avenue, Corona. Final plans for the pajama and funny shirt party to be held Saturday night will be made. Edward B. Hanrahan, president, will preside.

Steuben Society

Members of the Poppenhusen Unit, Steuben Society of America, will play host to their friends at at an open meeting of the organization to be held in Exempt Firemen's Hall, College Point, Thursday night. Several prominent speakers will address the meeting. Special entertainment will be provided.

Bowne Chapter, Delphians

Bowne Chapter of the Delphian Society will hold its first meeting of the season Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at Flushing Y. M. C. A.

Rosewood Improvement Ass'n

A regular meeting of the Rosewood Improvement Association will be held tonight in the clubrooms, 48-44 204th street, Rosewood. The annual nomination of officers will be held.

Blessed Sacrament Guild

A meeting and social will be held this evening by the Blessed Sacrament Guild in the parish hall of the Church of Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament, 34th avenue and 203rd street, Bayside.

Matowac's Special Meeting

A special meeting of the Matowac Men's Democratic Club will be held tonight in the clubrooms, 200-13 32nd avenue, Bayside West.

Bayside West G. O. P.

A meeting of the Bayside West Regular Republican Club will be held tonight at the home of the president, Frank Allen, 33-16 Jordan street, Bayside West.

Concert Tonight At Fort Totten

Program Will Start At 7 O'Clock

The Sixty-Second Coast Artillery Band will give a concert tonight at the Band Stand, Fort Totten. The concert will last an hour beginning at 7 o'clock and will be under the direction of Bandleader James E. Simmons.

Program:

1. March, "Fidelity", Blankenburg.
2. Overture, "Pique Dame", F. Von Suppe.
3. Two Popular Numbers:
   (a) Waltz "Lets all sing like the Birdies do", Hargreaves, Damerell and Evans.;
   (b) Fox Trot "I saw Stars", Sigler, Goodhart and Hoffman.
4. College Overture "A selection of Popular Songs", arranged by Meyrelles.
5. Two Characteristic Numbers:
   (a) "Angels Serenade", Braga;
   (b) "Persian March", Langey.
6. Selection, "The Merry Widow", Franz Lehar.
7. March, "Nobles of the Mystic Shrine", J. P. Sousa.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

George Ralph At Wedding Then At Party

George Ralph celebrated his 11th birthday Saturday at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Thomas A. Waywell of 49-13 Smart street, Flushing. After attending the wedding of his aunt, Miss Ethel Waywell and Henry Simon at St. George's Church, George was given a dinner party by his grandmother.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Naab, Mrs. Clara Waywell, Mrs. Elinor Ralph, Leslie Kellarns, Charles and Miss Dorothy Waywell, of Flushing, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Crump of Queens Village, Mr. and Mrs. James Paton and Miss Florence Paton of Maspeth.

Pi Delta Phi Sorority Plans Dance For Oct. 20

The Pi Delta Phi Sorority, Alpha Alpha Chapter met at the home of Miss Agnes Clyner of Bayside West. This was their first meeting of the season. Miss Clyner, who is the new president, presided. Plans were made for a fall dance to be held at the Old Country Club on October 20. Miss Margaret O'Leary and Miss Margaret Whelan will make arrangements for the music and the Misses Elise and Agnes Adams will be in charge of hall and ticket arrangements. The members present included the Misses Kay DeBois, Eleanor Davis, Mary Flynn, Mary Murphy, Lillian Waytisek, Margaret Whelan, Mary Jennings, Agnes Adams, Elise Adams, Margaret O'Leary and Agnes O'Leary. There will be a special meeting Thursday evening when plans for the dance will be completed.

Wins Tricolor

Mrs. Wirt Darrow, a member of Flushing Garden Club took the tricolor at the Hollis Women's Club flower show recently. Judges at the show were Mrs. James A. Coyle, former president of Douglaston Garden Club and Mrs. Ada Blinn.

Douglaston Art League Will Open Season With Show

Fa on Display, Card Party Scheduled For Wednesday Evening

The Douglaston Art League will open its fall season with a fashion show and bridge party, in Zion Parish Hall Wednesday evening, September 6. The proceeds will be used to finance the work of the League during the coming season. The bridge prizes will consist of craftwork and original sketches made and contributed by the members of the League.

In the fashion show, in addition to a professional exhibition of new fall styles, there will be models of original designs and costumes made by members of the League. Prizes will be awarded for the best original design, best children's costume, and best costume made by exhibitors.

Mrs. Stanley H. Walcott is president of the League which is planning 2 exhibitions, one in Douglaston and one in Flushing, this fall.

Miss Florence Ebling of Orient avenue is in charge of tickets for the Wednesday night event with Mrs. Ralph Alexander McLemore, Miss Ebling and Mrs. Arthur Sullivan on the bridge committee; Miss Helen Chase at the head of the fashion committee; Mrs. Robert Zoeller, the poster committee; Mrs. Raymond Winship Bristol, the refreshment committee; Miss Charlotte Blass, the prize committee.

Sacred Heart Club PingPong Tourney

Bayside Group To Play At Monthly Meetings

The Sacred Heart Club of Bayside made preliminary plans for a ping-pong tournament in October and November at the monthly meeting in the parish hall. The event will be open and there will be singles, doubles and mixed doubles with prizes going to the winners.

George E. McManus, chairman of the recent country fair, reported that this event, the first on the club program for the year, had been a social as well as a financial success.

The first of a series of monthly dances will be held in the parish hall October 12. John A. Dunstadter will be chairman of the affair and will announce the personnel of his committee within a few days. This party will be open to all and special invitations will be sent to the young people of nearby parishes in order that they may become acquainted with members of the Sacred Heart Club and learn of its activities.

It was voted to purchase an additional ping-pong table. Following the meeting there was dancing and games.

Ku Ku Social Club To Give Dance Party Oct. 20

The Ku Ku Social Club held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Kay Lee Crilley of 59th avenue. The members present were Miss Ann Tierney, Edward McGovern, John Crilley, Harry Evans, George McLaughlin, Miss Dorothy Fetterer, Miss Dorothy Delaney, Edward Von Sothen, Miss Gertrude Delaney, Henry Backasin, Joseph Murphy, Miss Sue Corrigan, Miss Ruth Hamelink, Robert Keating, Miss Kay Early, James Crilley, Jack Becker, and John Rates and John Early.

The club plans to hold a dance October 20. The committee consists of James Early, treasurer, Gertrude Delaney and Dorothy Delaney, entertainment; James Crilley and Dorothy Fetterer, reception committee; Joseph Murphy, refreshments and Harry Evans, tickets.

FRIARS WILL MEET

Louis Chorna To Be Host To Club Group

There will be a meeting of the Friar's Club of Flushing Sunday evening at the home of Louis Chorna, 41-31 Frame Place, Flushing. The meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock. All board members are asked to attend.

A meeting was held last Sunday when it was decided to hold the first open meeting on October 8, at the Jewish Center on Roosevelt avenue.

An enjoyable and attractive entertainment was planned. It will be an open meeting in order to introduce new members to the club. The new chaperon is Zoltan Rutkay.

Gerald A. Bramwell Takes Erie Girl As His Bride

Gerald Ames Bramwell, son of Gerald Bramwell formerly of Northern boulevard, Flushing, was married Saturday to Miss Katherine Hone Emmet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman LeRoy Emmet of Erie, Pa., and Stony Brook. The marriage took place at the Stony Brook home with a reception following. The bride wore the wedding dress of her aunt, the late Mrs. Katherine Hone Auerbach Baylis, who used to visit in Flushing. The gown was of old lace and ivory satin with a court train. The veil was of antique rose point lace in mantilla style, with cluster of orange blossoms. She carried lilies of the valley.

Miss Eileen Bramwell, sister of Mr. Bramwell, was one of the 10 bridal attendants. Best man and ushers were college friends of Mr. Bramwell.

Mrs. Bramwell was educated at St. Timothy's School, Catonsville, Md. She is a descendant of Philip Hone, once mayor of New York. Mr. Bramwell prepared for college at St. Mark's School. He was graduated from Harvard University where he was a member to the Spee Club and Hasty Pudding Institute of 1770. His grandfather was J. Arthur Bramwell of Flushing.

Ethel M. Waywell United In Marriage To Henry E. Simon

Miss Ethel Margaret Waywell, daughter of Mrs. Thomas A. Waywell of 49-13 Smart street, Flushing, and the late Mr. Waywell, was married Saturday afternoon to Henry Edward Simon, son of Mrs. George Naab of 156-20 65th avenue, Flushing, and the late Edward Simon. The marriage took place in St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church with the rector, the Rev. Hubert Stanley Wood, officiating. Arthur Bodycomb, organist of the church, played appropriate selections throughout the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Henry James Waywell. She wore a brown velvet suit with matching hat and a corsage of yellow brown orchids.

Her only attendant was her twin sister, Miss Eileen Elizabeth Waywell, whose costume was of rust color with fur trimmed collar, brown velvet beret and accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Thomas A. Waywell, the bride's mother wore a costume of navy blue silk with matching hat. Mrs. George Naab, mother of Mr. Simon, was attired in a blue crepe dress and hat.

Justus H. Knam of Flushing was best man for Mr. Simon. After the church service Mr. and Mrs. Simon with Miss Eileen Waywell, Henry J. Waywell, Justus Knam, and Miss Mary Fernsler, had a dinner party at the Hotel New Yorker, Manhattan, after which the young couple left on a short trip. On their return they will reside at 159-16 Sanford avenue.

The bride was graduated from Flushing High School in 1931 and from the Ballard School. Mr. Simon was educated at Flushing and Bryant High Schools, Columbia and New York Universities. He is a teller in the local branch of the Bank of Manhattan. Both Mr. and Mrs. Simon are members of St. George's Church and of the Thursday Night Club, an organization of young people of the church.

Guests at the wedding included Mrs. Susan Ramme, grandmother of Mr. Simon, Mr. and Mrs. George Naab, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Waywell Sr., of Astoria, Mrs. Elinor Ralph, Miss Dorothy Waywell, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Crump of Queens Village, Charles G. Waywell ,George E. Ralph, Henry J. Waywell Jr., Leslie Kellarns, Mr. and Mrs. James Paton, Miss Florence Paton, of Maspeth, Mrs. George Stimson, Miss Ruth and Miss Barbara Stimson, of Port Washington, Miss Lillian Keefe of Westport, Conn., Miss Esther Pinkham, Miss Esther Clark, Miss Mary Fernsler, Miss Regina Shannon, Miss Leonora Daniels, Miss Marguerite Emtler, Mrs. Paul Murray, Miss Adelaide Murray, Tristan and Ray Beplat, Sydney Plant, Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbody, Mrs. William Bowne Parsons, Miss Mary Kent, Miss Catherine Dixon, Mrs. A. T. Carey, Mrs. Arthur Bodycomb, Miss Francesca Bodycomb, Charles Borceli, Miss Millie Frank, Miss Clo Frank, Mrs. Charles Knam, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pinkham, Mrs. Frank Madge, Miss Lillian and Miss Dorothy Madge, Mr. and Mrs. George Tomas Js., Mrs. George Tomas Sr., of Flushing, and members of the staff of the Bank of Manhattan.

Douglaston Vets Stage Ball Game

Entertain Men Confined In Kings Park

American Legion Post of Douglaston and Little Neck is never weary of well doing when it comes to arranging entertainments for their disabled comrades in nearby institutions. On Sunday last, through their efforts, the veterans at Kings Park Hospital were enabled to enjoy a baseball game played by the Little Neck Wildcats and the Little Neck Cardinals, with a score of 7 to 0 in favor of the former on the grounds at Kings Park.

A group of 60 people, ballplayers, Legionnaires, wives and friends, left Little Neck at 1 p. m. in a bus and numerous automobiles, arriving at Kings Park in time for the game to be called at 2:30 p. m.

Post 103 presented a loving cup to the Wildcats in commemoration of their victory. On their return refreshments were served at the post headquarters in Douglaston.

The committee in charge consisted of Raymond Hubbs, chairman, Frank Sinardi, Raymond Devlin and Jack Liermark.

Bridgers Club Will Hold Dance Party October 6

The Bridgers Club held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Rose Schmidt of 59th avenue Friday evening. The members present were Miss Ann Listort, the Misses Rose, Millicent, Ann and Sue Giardini, and Miss Helen Ascemo.

The club will sponsor a dance in the League Building Oct. 6. The Misses Sue and Millicent Giardini are in charge of the refrshments and the Misses Rose Giardini, Rose Schmidt and Millicent Giardini are in charge of the music and the hall.

THE CLASSIFIED SECTION of THE JOURNAL is the bargain center of Flushing.

JANET NILES
TEACHER OF PIANO
Lessons Given at Pupil's Home or At Studio
Address 153-12 41st Avenue Tel. INd. 3-4854

Contract Bridge Instruction
ALL LEADING SYSTEMS
HAROLD SHERRILL
146-10 35th Ave., Flushing
Telephone Flushing 9-3687-J

Jane Berryman
announces opening of
Studio of Speech Art
Instruction for Adults—and children in Public Speaking—Dramatics—Elocution. This course improves your speaking voice, and develops poise, prepares for Platform Art—Stage or Radio. Rates Reasonable! Enroll now!
40-19 Murray Street FLushing 9-3675

Do You Know How To PLAY
POPULAR MUSIC
with an adequate left hand? with runs and "breaks" in both hands?
Gordon Phillips
Concert Pianist
in conjunction with his CLASSICAL INSTRUCTION, will show you the way.
42-39 Parsons Blvd.
cor. Beech Ave.
Tel. FLushing 9-2814

Hotel MORTON
ATLANTIC CITY
500 Feet from Boardwalk and Steel Pier
SEA WATER BATHS
SEA WATER POOL
BEACH BATHING
Two In Room as low as $25 weekly per person including all meals
Dance
TO MUSIC OF CHARLIE GASQUE & HIS 12 ROYAL VIRGINIANS IN THE MARINE ROOM
Write for Booklet and Folders of Novel Entertainment features. Special weekly and party rates on application.
Bell & Cope
OWNERSHIP MANAGEMENT
Also operating FRANKLIN INN directly across street. European Plan $10.00 per week. Restaurant in connection.
Modern and Moderate

Established 1913
FOXWOOD
— SCHOOL —
41-05 BOWNE STREET
FLUSHING, N. Y.
—o—
Principal
Elizabeth Curtiss Dresser
—o—
For
BOYS and GIRLS
From 2 to 18 years
Hours: 8:30 - 5:00
Tel. FLushing 9-2450